

Instructions for using this Receipt and Agreement:

- Take this Receipt and Agreement with you when you go to any store that requires customers to leave their bags at the door upon entry.
- Before consenting to leave your bags in the custody of the store, present this Receipt and Agreement to an employee of the store.
- Do not consent to leave your bags until this Receipt and Agreement is completed and signed.
- Keep this Receipt and Agreement with you until your bags, and all of the contents thereof, are returned to you complete and undamaged.

Receipt and Agreement

I, _____
hereby make the following statements.

Name of Signatory, Printed

I am _____ at _____

Title or Position of Signatory

Name of Store

Address of Store

I hereby certify that I am authorized to act on behalf of the store named hereon and that the store is bound by my signature affixed hereon.

I hereby acknowledge receipt of Personal property such as backpack, purse, shopping bags, (etc.) and contents

I hereby acknowledge that the customer has involuntarily surrendered the personal property to me at my own express insistence. I hereby certify that the store is unconditionally responsible for the personal property until such time as it is returned to the customer. The store agrees to compensate the customer, to his complete satisfaction, for any and all loss or damage to any of the personal property listed hereon, if that loss or damage occurs before the property is returned to the customer.

I hereby make these statements and enter into this agreement on behalf of the store under penalty of perjury.
